In games where u start with "normal" credits (less than 1000) the harvey is vital aspect. Many ppl are content with killing the harvey once @ start of game then tagging it later on if its convient. I suggest you keep the other team as poor as possible - kill the harvey like 3 er so times in a row if not more while keeping yours alive. They will be poor as ever while your team should have a few tanks by this point. Basicly keeping the harvey deader than dead helps a lot. the0ne.
