I am "SHAMED" when I get such low kills in a sniper game.excuse me GOD. it seems hard to get over 40 kills in most games i play; even the best snipers don't get those kills.If there is a chance I would like to see you kill me 40 or 50 times in a sniping game... name server and timePS. I don't spawn kill that is weaksauce.ohh another thing, want a cookie? pat on the back?If you had bothered to look at the link provided by npsmith, then you may have reconsidered this statement. Personally, I don't care if I spawn kill or not. I simply don't go and camp within a stucture to shoot someone who does indeed spawn. If I am in Complex for example, and am on Nod, and are at the sniping vantage point in the center of the level. If I see a unit in the Barracks, I will snipe that unit regardless of what he/she is doing.Tough luck for that person.Finally, yes, 30-40 kills is extremely possible for even moderately skilled snipers. Perhaps you would like to speak to Lukazan, or MrCod on the subject? [October 12, 2002, 17:13: Message edited by: Javaxcx]
