Once, my team (GDI) had amazing teamwork or Walls_Flying. 5 of us were Minnigunners. One engi. We rished thru the middle of the map (in the ifrst 2 mins of game) and raced into the Nod subterranean tunnel, popped out, ran into the Hon and nobody saw us. WE laid all of our c4 on the MCT, (ecept the engi) And then some SNiper (BH) saw us and sniped almost all of us exept me and one other mini and engi. well, the guy turned into Mendoza, shot us all when we tried to get out of building, and then about 4 engis ran into Hon. They got one c4 then the rest went BLAM. We won that game. Sorry if this is a bit off topic, justa good c4 story. And with free inf too!
