That's why it's necessary. Your arrogance is astounding. Because you get killed while hiding out, doesn't mean the rest of us do. If this tactic doesn't work for you, oh well. Get better at using it, just like I had to learn the close range jumping headshot without a scope.I guess you were too uptight to note the joke I made about the rock. Just because you want to be better... If you are referring to me getting killed by a useless tactic (Not for all, but when used against me) then you haven't got a clue about how I play so don't talk BS.You want arrogance, this is arrogance; you spelt necessary wrong.
