I think a post like this was done a while back.. but if i remember correctly there weren't that many replies. Basically list down all of the BEST sniping spots you know. 1) Map: UnderBehind the rock in the shadows right at the entrance Nods base. Sukaras and Sniper Blank Hands are difficult to spot. 2) Canyon: In the tunnel there is this spot with loads of beams and rafters. Well you can jump in to the beams and hide up there! As far i as i know there is only a spot for Nod to do this but i may be wrong. Its cool cause Infantry go running straight past giving you chance to get em in the back or head.
