Okay I just have a question on your server, I'm not sure if it is still up. Why was the official Westwood server only cycling through 4 or 5 of the Westwood maps? It doesn't use Field, Island, Under, or Complex. Other than Island, what is wrong with those maps that caused you to take them off the server list? Oh yeah, and it's quite annoying to the fact that WW doesn't even monitor that server. Profanity is used constantly and nobody is ever banned or kicked. Also, there was one user, Wilost0rm, who was on your server for several hours at a time, his sole mission being to destroy his own teammates' base by using the ion cannon/nuke trick (where you leave the game). This went on for at least 3 games, and he openly admitted that he was the trouble maker. I think it set a good example for other unofficial servers if WW would actually monitor their own servers.
