It works best to get them when they are looking through the scope. I like to c4 them on either team. N B Snipers are the easy ones. You can tell they are N BZ because they stand still and don't know your behind them LOL. But in a close up fight with a sniper you can get a kill even if they pop you. Just make sure you throw the c4 before they get a kill. Proxies work too,if you are a tech or hotty, but timed is so sweet. If I'm a stealth I'll usually give them a little public message like "Tick Tick" followed by "Boom" as the timed goes off. Really *es them off LOL.
