If your power plant and HoN are blown up, the middle area of the map is sniper infested, you are saving for, say flame rush, what better entertainment can you have than c4 your fellow teammates? Ok, I know repair stuff sure, but there isn't always something and after all isn't that the very reason that you'd have an engie in the first place?Btw, don't talk about organizing APC rush. It's more buying an APC and using the "Get in the vehicle!" command.
