Frontrunner quote: I'd reccomend the Barracks/HON those are the most important structures, Nobody needed the power plant or Guard tower/Ob. The airstrip/weapons fact are highly over rated

Nod/Barracks is the most important structure. Right? If not. Newer mind. Well I actually think those structures are the most important. Not meant as you should put all your mines there, but as a big deal if you loos it. Without the higher personnel classes you cant do much against a flame rush. There will be no (personnel) stealth nukes. No sniper possibility, which makes a difference,
