Hehe, I put C4 on a PP MCT, then a guy walked in - I quickly ran up to a PT and stood there. He ran by and ignored me. I also get accused of "editing code or something" when I shoot them down with a sniper in their orca/apache. I guess they think I changed the damage level, but I think they're just retarded. But really, we have a reason to hate them, they are very annoying but they also provide a good laugh. We need to make a central topic just about the "Anti-n00b movement".
