However, on ACK's new meadow map, ST can rule the field, en masse. By this I mean that the field is SO huge, that four of them can sneak up behind any incoming assault and kick serious @ss. I found the best defense not to be mammy's which are too slow and bersome, but a group of APC's. You can spray your surrounding area with Machine Gun fire to locate stealthed units, and then two apc's per ST can wipe them out very quickly. APC's....not just for rushing anymore. Stealth Tanks....they're what's for dinner.
