Problem with mamoths is cos they are powerful as soon as they get on the battle field all of nod focuses it's fire power on it to take it out. I only drive med tanks and normally get mvp or 2nd 3rd if I do a bit of sniping. but nod get alot more points for killing a mamoth then a med tank and the number of times gdi have been ahead when using med then switched to mammoth and lost have been countless. I think only one mamoth should be on the battle field and it draws all the fire allowing the faster mediums to take out the nod armour cos its only the flame tank with heavier armour then a med in the nod team
