All depends on your situation. There really is no need to stick with a $500 sniper when you can easily afford a $1000. That makes no sense. The 500 ones have no advantage, just less dmg should you happen to miss the headshot. PIC Syndey is an awesome anti-tank weapon, Mobius is great for infantry and good on tanks too. However Patch has longer range and can poison, and Gunner has, well, a rocket launcher =). Just use what you need/prefer.
