I actually prefer a stealth with a shotgun. You all know the C4-on-the-back-of-sniper tactic. With a shotgun, you can do this as long as you have shotty ammo left because a hit in the back of the head from point blank range usually kills a sniper (I think Havoc might require 2 hits). Very useful, also great when killing engies trying to disarm C4 since the ROF is higher than the sniper rifle.
