PS: STFU don't defend C4Kitty or I'll pound you in the dirt.Adjusting your gameplay is what games are all about. You already know what she is going to do for the most part.. use it to your benefit.. don't cry about it. It's not like your being paid to play ya know.. You want to win.. you want points you want to go up the ladder. We all do.. I run around as an engie alot, I buy tanks for people. I try to help out as much as I can.. I did repair C4 during the game.. and I'd do it again.. just like I'd repair you. I'm out to win (although my ratings don't show it). I don't quit because someone is pounding the crap out of me.. (ask a couple of the guys in the Foofoo clan) I play to win. Doesn't always work out that way, but I am improving. OOps I was supposed to STFU already!! Nuff said.
