Everyone, I encourage you all to visit the new and improved CNC Zone. www.cnczone.net If you are staff of the original cnc zone and haven't been contacted yet, that's because I am not sure how to get ahold of you yet. Prolly just email you in the morning. Anyway, while you are visiting our site, why not submit some of your work, or post a message in our forums. Or better yet, why not do both Once again, that's www.cnczone.net notice the fact that we now have a domain name. Is'nt it great.
