LMAO! Aki, your not going to get by an AGT with a weak ass stealth tank! And the AGT is right in the front of the base and everybody is going to see you do it..The best technique is a blackhand in the refinery nook and a black hand in the war factory garage (BTW Noobs the War garage door opens when you approach it with black hand) and you better make sure you get to the corner and lay it quick because if a vechicle is made and your in the way you are dead.
