Yes, I agree patrolling base with a buggy etc is a big advantage, I love burning around like a mad man jumping out checking a building, then drive to next building etc, and if someone steals it it's like only 300 bucks, give them hell though. Maybe it is a good idea to park a vehicle @ entrance of AGT to block the entrance, but what do you guys think? of coarse you mine area also, but is that a bad idea and why?Heel if I was enemy, I'd just jump in buggy and drive around their base raising bloody heel.
