If you have some heavy ammo left, use it on the helicopter. I did, plus the rocket soldiers. The first time I played that mission I was so mad after getting killed xx times that I wiped out everything alive in that area (including the engineers of course). Only got 3 stars I think anyway..Which brings me to the stars. Why do you have to rush through the levels as fast as possible to get 5 stars? It makes you skip all the cool places and people you can talk to on the way. I say: Forget about the stars! Just take your time, save often and HAVE FUN, **** the secret level someone mentioned you get if you complete all missions with 5 stars. A code will probably lock it up later

secret level anyway.Hidden
