*tsk tsk* look at all the future cheaters we will have. I'm sure that some of you guys will think "well gee, since cheating in sp is fun, imagine what cheating in mp will be like" I also bet some of the good players will turn to cheating too. Some people just want a higher rank in ladder so they can brag about it. Here's a question I have for you guys. Why do you want to cheat? Is it because sp is boring or frustrating? Well, what if you find mp boring or frustrating too? Are you going to cheat there?
