for people who just bought the game, sp is a way to get used to the game and learn how everything works, when they cheat, they wont learn squat... then when they come over to the multiplayer side of things they are the god *ed definition of n00bs.let them learn how to play by themselves or theyll never learn anything and say the game was crap koz it took 3 seconds to pass in sp, and they couldnt play the multiplayer koz they just purely suck
