We were all newbes once, but I can't remember being THAT dumb! You should have shot his ass a couple of times to get his attention, preferably with a couple of mammoth tank, cannon or rocket rounds. Seriously, stupid newbes * me off, you can't help just siting there and watching as they run across an open field, blissfully unaware that a sniper is lining them up for a head shot and then have them complaning that they can't play the game properly cause they keep dying. USE COMMON SENSE PLEASE!
