quote: It is easier to destoy a GDI base... Just drive in with an apc and blow up a building with a stealth black hand or do that with a nuke... And just how does one do this?If you get out anywhere within range of the guard tower you get shot.If you drive to a secluded corner you've most likely got a tank or other offensive GDI soldier following you.There's probably proximity mines around which you can't disarm.If you start planting the beacon you'll be killed by the guy who was following you. Or are you talking about destroying an undefended base? WE all know how to do that.
