This game rocks, it reminds me of Grand Theft Auto 3,he,he.I love stealing ENEMY vehicles, I was a black hand elite stealth soldier (my favorite), and I was playing on the map called "under", any how, there was a medium tank and a Mammoth tank just sitting outside the GDI base, they where being repaired, I ran/snuck over and "acquired" the Mammoth tank, (I was also in range of the GDI AGT, which was shooting at me), they were really *ed off, I got it back to the NOD base with about 25 health. I repaired it and used it against them, it was great fun, I have always wanted to feel "wanted". Any one else use the Black Hand Elite Stealth Solider to "Acquire" enemy vehicles?-----"Inferior tactics detected" – Cabal"By the way, missile launch detected!" – Cabal[March 11, 2002: Message edited by: djkmDevastator]
