I hated this mission alot .If I had my way I would have shot him myself, well actually, I did end up shooting him, and killing Mobius, I think he has no brains and no brawn, he,he.I do not think the enemies can kill him???At the end of the mission he had so little health reading on his health bar, that he may has well have been dead!!! With this mission, its all about head shots and alot of body bags. -----“Inferior tactics detected” – Cabal“By the way, missile launch detected!” – Cabal
