Ha, I know the level and there's a bug with little ol' EVA's compass. If you don't follow it, and skip along into the rest of the village it will skip, and you won't be able to find them. That aside here are some of the teams locations; 1.) hotwire is dead ahead of you in the corner use the C4 to clear the rubble, as you'll need the C4 for later, to take at tanks and choppers. 2.) continue into the village, whenever you come to a small hut with doors run upto the doors and they'll open revealing resistance cell members that can and will assist you. If at any time you see a civie with the enter sign above go and talk to them as they will give you info and extra objectives. 3.) Gunner is in the town square hiding in a snipers hut. The place is being bombed so don't stay in the open or the hut, like me as it really does hurt, instead run to the building entrance behind the hut and snipe the place from the open window. 4.) if you miss a person they usually find their way to the cathedral anyway, they're kinda like homming pigeons. p.s. heres a tip, if you run right upto the flame tanks, then backwards as drives at you, you can stay in between it's two flame jets and avoid being burnt to a crisp, also the chain gun is great for these guys as their armor is p*ss ass weak.
