I have seen gamers asking about game cheats, if there is or will be. Of course many gamers do not use them. I think that is great. Then again there is that gamer who has problems playing and gets very upset,slams the mouse, hits the key board. If a cheat helps this gamer enjoy the game then great, use it and enjoy. All you gamers who feel that this is wrong, keep it to yourself. Lets help those by supporting them not putting them down. This only applies to the single player game and cheats should never be used in multiplayer.
