quote: its sit in the hallway, with a big gun, and shoot @ the buildings.usually, everyone else is too preoccupied to do anyhting, so this goes unnoticed. also usually, the building is destroyed, and they are crippled. Hmmmm what gun do you use?? Unless it's like a rocket launcher it wont do enough dmg to destroy a building from the outside(unless u wanna sit there shooting for 15 mins).

And any team who cant see the rockets flying from tunnel hitting the powerplant followed by the message GDI powerplant under attack....well that's just stupid. =p One of the reasons I love some other maps if no base defense or avoidable base defenses, you can sneak by and ion cannon/nuke the place lol.As for the Obilisk missing, that's gonna be patched (or is patched), at least that's what WW stated. It's not normal for something that shoots at the speed of light to miss lol.
