Woa woa woa! Who sais it stinks against infantry? You just get right next to them and hit them with the full concentration of the fire, they die. You can also hit lots of them at once while a bullet can only hit one person. Besides, I'd rather own vehicles and buildings. The Chem warrior is my favorite character! He's cheap, $150, He kills vehicles and buildings, he can hit grouped infantry all at once instead of having a bullet hit only one, and he can walk on Tiberium! He's the coolest!-----And when there's no money, flamer. Weaker, can't walk on tiberium, not as much range, but still hits groups of infantry, still nice vs tanks and buildings, and he's free. So use them both wisely but Plz don't change them! [ February 26, 2002: Message edited by: Crazy Ivan ]
