Last night i played a 10vs10 game and both team GDI and NOD had stupid people like this one Flame tank on the NOD side just started flaming as soon as he got into his tank some black hands shot me because i told them to watch what they shoot at since the stupid shot at me several times the problem is i had the invisible black hand so its pretty obvious that i cant be a GDI soldier still the stupid killed me and then when i shot back at them they call me a and ass for shooting at them then i was playing at the GDI side and some stupid was pretending to fight NOD while he just returned to base and started shooting people when they accessed the PT then i also saw some stupid 2 of them both Engineers that kept repairing a destroyed building while some tanks were requesting to be fixed so to close it off this was about the worst game i ever played in Renegade but i cant understand how people can be so stupid and lame why do they even play this game they do nothing but ruining the game for other people
