The most expensive tank I will buy is no more than 1000. Med light artillery stealth and flame all got more speed and can do great. MRLS is slow but carries lots of punch in one round. Mammoth can stand lots of hits but it is just too slow and takes for ever to get to battle field. Nod's infantry is better and GDI's tank is better.(slightly) So the base defence is designed to cover the weakness. This game is balanced.
