Are you a "toadie" for the anti-Aircraftkiller people? Aircraftkiller... why do you think people are against you? have you ever thought in you "intelligent" little mind of yours why people respond to you the way they do? Well, if you haven't figured it out yet i will tell you. It is your attitude towards things that you declare are unacceptable to you. sure.. you have the freedom of speech just like everyone in the nation does, but that doesn't mean you should abuse it in such a way that others are offended by your words. I would say that you have a mental disorder. i say this in my opinion, just like you declared that you had the right to state. Don't just start writing an anger message back, all i would like you to do is clam down and type something that wouldn't be hard to take. For example: "That looks nice but x, y, z, could use a little fixing and and a, b, c, has been already done by.. whoever.."But hey! its your life and if you want to live it in anger then that is your problem.
