Good job at taking a weed-whacker to the Red Alert theme, once again! Here we go again..... Let him make his models the way he wants Ack, don't get all over his case.If you leave the chassis the way it is, it looks like the TT 110 ED tank from Earth 2150.No, it would look like a T-72 with twin barrels, a slightly wider chassis, and a pair of armor plates bolted to the front like two front teeth.
