quote:Originally posted by Maimer1:IMO ack is a n00b, the fact that acks maps are advertised on the top of these forums almost leads me to beleive that delphi doesnt read what goes on in here and therefore doesnt know how baddly ack is ruining the state of this community. I didnt mind it when he would say "Its Nod not NOD" simply because it was humorous and undestructive. Now however he will say a newbis work is **** instead of simply telling him that it was a good job, and even maybe saying that most people could do better but its a good try. but nope, he has to flame them and deter them from this VERY small community, im GUESSING that 20\% of the people that have left this community are in somewhat guided by ack because of his disregard for this comunities health, if he really cared, he would leave andre alone instead of flaming his work and directing attention to andre. The only thing that keeps some people in this community is ACK's giant ego which blocks some people's doorway. Ur a n00b ack and their is very little you can do that will salvage what is left of your reputation, the only thing keeping you afloat is your good maps and the few fans that you have.N00BWhat I can make of that is this: "I don't like you, so I'm fabricating stories!"Basically, you're not the first person who's said "Blah blah Delphi kisses his ass, ACK kisses Westwood's ass, all he cares about is himself, all he does is down other people, all he does is this and that... blah blah blah"Let me put this into perspective, Moronic1: You're not the first person to tell me that I'm going to leave the community and that everyone hates me. You're certainly not the last person, either. But guess what... For over two years now, I've been here. I've been doing the same things, over and over. Guess what? I'm still here, and the 90+ morons just like you who threatened me like this before are all gone, distant memories of hilarity in action. You guys all say the same things over and over... Accuse me of having an ego, but when it all comes down to it... You end up leaving, and you're the one who does it loudly because your ego is so bruised that you cannot go on in the community anymore.But, as Tervel would have said here... "He will keep repeating himself over and over! Interesting as to when this foolish one will learn!"Timeless words that span a millenia... Oh, and one last thing... I don't care about my reputation. You haven't tarnished it in the slightest. My work is me, and what I produce is what people like. I don't give half a rat's ass about how many people like me. Haven't you learned anything yet?
