quote:You can make the polygon count for less then that, and you must be very bored if you wasted five hours on that.What did you take the long way to make that. Yawn.I know the polycount could be lower. Your point? And I didn't spend 5 hours straight on it. That's 5 hours total. Post something better, with less polys, done in less time, and I might actually care about your opinion. Until then, you're just a troll.
