Idea for existence was originally just me and "alkor" and we were just going to reskin all Westwood buildings and make it a Us Marines vs Axis's of Evil which we started in about July. Upon gaining better mapping skills and him better skills, we Got Lunchbox(not lunchbox) who is now lunchbroks or something to form UMM(Uber maps and Mods) This was about "August" to finish our Us Marines vs Axis Mod which was just really reskinning everything and making maps. Eventually we came across madtone who ran a mod team of The scientist and Atlas called nova who wanted to stay small. Me and madtone talked and created "Nova mod team" The mariens vs Axis mod was put aside for now as we learned tutrial after tutrial on how to do things. Then, i started recruiting. I brought in a lot of people. Eventually i got tired of doing nothing and said Lets finish our mod, but redo everything! And the Mod Existence was born. Then we moved forums, blah blah and finally got hosted and here i am with a great mod team. Mod offically started in Mid July.is this an attempt to change your original story, and where is this US marines vs. axis's of evil mod anyways??? is it one of those mods that was just kept on your own harddrives or failed completely? you better thik fast cus your on a freight train headed for n00bville.lol n00bville? You were asking me the other day to have my Gun models posted at "nova's" site <http://planetcnc.com/ammo/nova> Hey next time read the whole thing and realize that the storyline is the same just our team grew and what we could do more as we grew, so we decided to Mod the whole Game all over again, With out stealing anything. Realize that? [ December 19, 2002, 19:53: Message edited by: greenhaze2003 ]
