I think that should work if you make a long texture strip that repeats on the horizontal and just make that drift slowly across the plane...To make a map without a power plant, just make the power plant controllers and don't worry about anything else. I have no clue who made Carnage Club Extreme, nor do I know how to make the neon effects, but I could take a look in the w3ds in the mix...Skint made Carnage Club Extreme (Gotta love that map )As for that effect - It's just a Dummy Object (Emitter).Here's a screenshot >> <http://www.n00bstories.com/image.fetch.php?id=1482844045>
