why should we have to buy renegade again just to get what we were promised in the beginning. I feel they should work on renegade and get it all to work. Its all there they just gotta make a few scripts and maps. I sure as hell dont want to go out and pay another 20-50 bucks just so i can play ctf or whatever when i was promised that with the original. i say fix the problem and release a patch not fix the problem and resell the fix as an expansion pack. p.s. I dont mean to flame or anything but this is just something that has happened before and i am against such things with a zeal
