is it me, or is there alot more newbie modders here lately...here is some tips for you guys... Don't show up from no where, and advertise this kick ass program you made, and everyone should download it... (memories of the flying buzzz *yeesh)if you haven't finished anything... don't offer to help get the tools.... RenHelp, Gmax 1.1 or 1.2, Westwoods Renegade Tools, Xcc OR RenegadeEx.ask for help in ONE topic... it is annoying to see the same topic in 5 different phrasings.if your website is the same as everyone elses, has popups, and looks like a five year old developed it... keep it to your little fanclub.SEARCH THE FORUM BEFORE YOU POST A QUESTION that is what that feature is for ok, by no means am i trying to put down anyone who wants to start modding, but alot of things have happened, and alot of people are tired of the same stuff... be original, learn what you can, and don't reinvent the wheel...
