This weekend I was over at my friends house(he has a really great comp but AOL is so extremely slow), and we were going to get some maps. We tried country meadows at first, but that was going to take hours. We tried some of CnChq's maps, too long on his 56k. We (in desperation) went to grab maps at your site. We got some of your AI's, and I must say, that is the bst 16 hours straight of renegade I've ever had. If you haven't played any on Dante's AI maps, then do so immediately. I clap for you Dante, and thank you for making the files smaller, and making the best F'n AI out there!Dante.ww-unleashed.com orwww.Dante.havocide.comThanks for not making me play Pong all weekend!
