I have to admit the uzi is awesome. but still no matter how much anyone tries they can never come to close to this ak-47 my friend made. I dont have any screens of it. But i see you used a picture of an uzi as your texture. If renegade mods was up I would show you an uzi that the same person made with the same pic. the only difference is you can get the whole poly unw thing to work and you lightened the texture.<http://www.statikvision.com/invision/uploads/post-13-1036353085.jpg>thats the uzi. [
