I'm just adding the finishing touches to it, and it'll be done, hope you check it out and let me know what you think, I have a lot of sky bridges in it, and in the version I'm releasing the bridges will stop a projectile, but I've tride it both ways, can't really decide wich way to have it, might do two version, but would be nice to hear for the people that play it. thanks for your post.
