This is truly a snipers par-a-die's map.OK folks, I have a new map that I believe most of you will find fun and entertaining to play, it's called "C&C_Snipers_Canyon" It's made with cheaters in mind too, I see a lot of sniping only games on the servers being played and these ?ss holes come in, buy tanks or what ever, take out a building and then leave, screwing it up for the ones trying to play fair, I fixed that by making it infantry only, and nod buggies and hummies are spawned through out the map for transport, when you spawn, half the time you'll spawn on the your base and the other half you'll spawn on the enemies base. There are PT's for either side to renew on both bases, sounds strange? Wait till you play it. It's pretty cool, different any ways. This map does use the mountains I used in my last map, but I added a lot of new areas to go to within it and a lot of new bridges too. This will be the last map I believe that I will be using these mountains in, but man, I have a lot of work in these mountains and it seems I keep making them better, so they get re-used. Sorry if that is a problem. Let me know after you check out this next map,I will probably be releasing it this weekend, or shortly after. It's the first map I know of like it. Hope you guys like it. My buddies and I play it and we have a blast on it. lolOh, yea, when it's released you'll be able to get it at the following
