As of right now, I am officaly announcing my TS building mod, Renegade:Firestorm. Once I finish the nessecary buildings, I will begin to relase them in my own maps, all of which will be in MIX format. I don't plan on adding new units, but that may change with time. Even without new units they still should be fun to play, as the new buildings may offer/need new tactics for thier destruction. The frist map which I will relase with my new buildings will be C&C_Under2_Bilzzard, I felt it was only right to get Under involved, I KNOW everyone just loves the map... Sorry I have no ETA for all this, but I'll be sure to make it soon. Heres some new eye candy of the Hand Of Nod, still under construction. Out of all my buildings I like this one the least, I'm not happy how the back and sides look. Tell me what you think.
