Who's actually excited about E&B? Im sure im not. I personally think WW has a great series going on (C&C) maybe they should stick to it, support the community and even have an "UPDATE" *hint**hint* every day or two. Maybe even make an expansion for the game, fix up some lag issues and then, It would probably be alive as ever (if not more) and maybe even make an expansion. And whats up with the TS servers? they keep fecking up all the time and you removed chatting from it. much harder to find ppl. And fix the ranking system up. we may as well play on ***spy. theres less lag and if we get or act together, us "fans" can maybe show those rambos some teamwork. Maybe we should all try playing on ***spy until WW hauls their ass together. Afterall, ***spy has less lag.
