Scrumfy(what a name),I felt like giving my opinion on the subject because I felt somewhat put off by Ack's comments. It was just me stating my opinion. Now as for you, you have no right to call anyone pathetic. You're what...17-20. Living at home with Mom and Dad or going to college on parent's money. You live to go to school and start sh!t on the forums. As for me, I work running sites for a living. I'm married with two children. I worked my @ss off to put my wife thru college and now she has her Masters.Now, who's the pathetic one? I think I'll just quit replying to the more asinine statements from morons like you. You and your kind are just a little too young and inexperienced to have much to say of any merit. Not all of you, but most.KP
