I officialy hate westwood and EA. I'm only playing Renegade because of it's modding potential. I'm sick and tired of them always making promises that they know they can't keep, and they never do keep them. There coders are pretty pathetic to take them this long, I know alot of friends that could of had aircrafts in, and A-10, and recon bike balanced months ago, and better. And they probly have alot of coders.. It's just pathetic. There out drinking bear, and at strip clubs, they don't give a crap, they already got our money, they'll wait as long as they want to finish it, because they don't have to.
