Havocmana french couple in my town there car, was flipped, bashed in, and set a blaze. belive it or not, some of the police at the coulpes house blamed them for doing it them selfs and blamming the people on there strreet.

well,
i can't really say that they didn't deserve it.
OMG! I can understand attacking public property but personal property attacks are disgusting.
The statue will be repaired by the city. But that couple has to pay for the damages! :stern:
