Good Job Ack... you went almost a full 10 days since the last "your being an immature prick" lecture..

And Crimson STILL can't see why we find it hard to take BHS seriously... Childish antics, which never seem to end.... As long as YOU'RE on their team, you make them all look bad too.. PR? That's a term that YOU should be learning more about..

But we've been through this before.. and the circle begins again.
