Sir PhoenixxCarlnot to back up what anyone did.

but saying 'france' vandalized the statue is ludicrous. your topic title makes it sound as if all of france supported the vandals.

No one said 'France' did it. The topic doesn't state that 'France' did it, it states that the liberty statue & 9/11 plaque in France were vandalized. You did a good job of reading the topic.
:rolleyes:

(It's like saying: "K-Mart: Electronics Section destroyed", Now does that mean K-Mart destroyed their Electronics Section, or that K-Mart is the department store at which an Electronics Section has been destroyed?)

The original topic was "France torches statue of liberty and 9/11 plaque". Due to subject length restrictions I wasn't able to put "replica" in there so I had "France" so people wouldn't think it was the statue of liberty HERE that was torched. Anyhow I never meant for it to indicate that "all of france" took part in the vandalism, but some people like to nitpick so I changed it.
